Amendments to article 77 of the FIFA Statutes

Dear Sir or Madam,

As you know, the 63rd FIFA Congress in Mauritius on 30 and 31 May 2013 approved the removal of article 77 paragraphs 1 and 2 of the FIFA Statutes as well as the amendment of article 77 paragraphs 3 and 4 of the FIFA Statutes as follows (deleted text in strikethrough, new text in bold):

“Art. 77 Levies

13. The Confederations may demand their own a levy on international matches played between two “A” representative teams independently of FIFA, in accordance with the Confederations’ statutes and regulations.

24. Members may demand their own levy on matches played in their territory, independently of FIFA and their Confederation, in accordance with the Members’ statutes and regulations.”

Furthermore, due to the fact that FIFA’s four-year financial period begins on 1 January in the year following the final competition of the FIFA World Cup™, the 63rd FIFA Congress approved that the above-mentioned amendments to the FIFA Statutes shall come into force as of 1 January 2015, reason for which they have not been inserted in the current (2014) edition of the FIFA Statutes in force. However, please note that these amendments, although not included in the current (2014) edition of the FIFA Statutes, shall come into effect and be valid as from 1 January 2015.

We thank you for taking note of the above and for your valuable cooperation.

Yours faithfully,

FIFA
