Terms
of the Decision
of the Chairman of the Adjudicatory Chamber
of the
FIFA Ethics Committee

Mr. Hans-Joachim Eckert [GER]

concerning

PROVISIONAL MEASURE
taken in Zurich, Switzerland, on 27 May 2015
in the case of:

Mr Eduardo Li

(Ethics 150341 PRV CRC ZH)
Decision

1. The official, Eduardo Li, is hereby provisionally banned from taking part in any kind of football-related activity at national and international level (administrative, sports or any other) in accordance with art. 83 par. 1 in fine and art. 6 par. 1 let. h of the FIFA Code of Ethics as well as art. 22 of the FIFA Disciplinary Code since a breach of the Code of Ethics seems to have been committed and a decision on the main issue may not be taken early enough.

2. The provisional measure may not be valid for longer than 90 days (art. 85 par. 1 of the FIFA Code of Ethics). In exceptional circumstances, this period may be extended once by 45 days (art. 85 par. 1 of the FIFA Code of Ethics).

3. Mr Eduardo Li will be summoned to a hearing or and/or invited to submit written statements after this decision has been issued. Subsequently, the Chairman of the adjudicatory chamber of the FIFA Ethics Committee shall confirm, revoke or amend this decision (art. 84 par. 2 of the FIFA Code of Ethics).

4. The costs and expenses pertaining to the provisional measure shall be allocated in the decision regarding confirmation, revocation or amendment of this decision.

5. This decision is sent to Mr Eduardo Li by a publication on the official FIFA website, FIFA.com. A copy of the decision is sent to CONCACAF and the Costa Rica Football Federation (cf. art. 44 of the FIFA Code of Ethics).
Note relating to the terms of the decision:

Pursuant to art. 78 of the FIFA Code of Ethics, the Ethics Committee may decide not to communicate the grounds of a decision and instead communicate only the terms of the decision. The addressee of the decision has ten (10) days from receipt of the terms of the decision to request, in writing, the grounds of the decision. Failure to do so will result in the decision becoming final and binding. A request for the grounds of the decision does not affect the terms of the decision, which come into force as soon as they are communicated (art. 45 par. 1 of the FIFA Code of Ethics).

Note relating to the legal action:

Only the motivated decision can be appealed against to the chairman of the FIFA Appeal Committee (art. 86 par. 1 in conjunction with art. 78 par. 2 of the FIFA Code of Ethics).
