VII. AGENDA CONTAINING THE ITEMS TO BE DISCUSSED AND ENCLOSURES
1. Modifications (submitted by The FA)
   a. “Rolling subs” – report on pilot project by The FA
   b. Amendment to the Laws of the Game
In addition to the above modifications, subject to the agreement of the member association concerned and provided the principles of these Laws are maintained, the laws regarding substitutions may be modified in their application for matches for amateur players in any age group provided that:

- such matches are solely for amateurs
- such matches are not part of the most senior domestic competition of a member association

Further modifications are only allowed with the consent of the International Football Association Board.

Reason

Permitting modifications to the Laws regarding substitutions in amateur/“recreational” football will help with the growth and retention of players within amateur/“recreational” football. The change will give associations more flexibility to encourage people to take up the sport or to continue their participation in “recreational” football without affecting the professional game in any way. It is also suggested that such a modification would not be permitted for a member association’s most senior domestic competition (where such a competition is solely amateur).

2. Law 4 – The Players’ Equipment (submitted by FIFA)

   a. Use of head covers by male players
   b. Amendment to the Laws of the Game

Other equipment (Interpretations), p. 69

Modern protective equipment (…) permitted.

Where head covers are worn, they must

- be of the same main colour as the jersey
- be in keeping with the professional appearance of the player’s equipment
- not be attached to the jersey
- not pose any danger to the player wearing it or any other player (e.g. opening/closing mechanism around neck)
- not have any part(s) extending out from the surface (protruding elements)

Reason
After a two-year pilot, there is no indication as to why the wearing of head covers should be prohibited, as long as their design restrictions are respected as defined in the pilot. Furthermore, the male football community has also raised the need for male players to be permitted to wear head covers, as it is considered discriminatory.

3. Law 4 – The Players’ Equipment (submitted by The FA)

Reason
Currently what a player can reveal on any item of basic compulsory equipment is different to what he can on an undergarment i.e. he can’t reveal a personal statement or image on his outer jersey but he can on his undershirt. This amendment seeks to outline a consistent approach to both the outer jersey and all types of undergarment. There is also an opportunity to introduce an improved structure to this section i.e. the first two bullet points refer to the outer shirt (basic compulsory equipment) and bullet points 3 & 4 refer to undergarments.

4. Law 8 – The Start and Restart of Play: dropped ball (submitted by FIFA)

5. Law 12 – Fouls and Misconduct: handling the ball (submitted by FAW)
6. Electronic performance and tracking systems (EPTS) (submitted by FIFA)

7. Structure and formatting of the Laws of the Game (submitted by the Technical Sub-Committee)
