* The second-placed team from the CAF qualification competition will play off against the second-placed team from the CONMEBOL qualification competition.

A preliminary competition will be held in each confederation to determine the participants at the final tournaments.

We would therefore like to take this opportunity to invite FIFA’s member associations to enter the men’s and women’s competitions by filling in and returning the attached entry form to FIFA by Friday, 12 January 2018 at the latest. Entry is free of charge.

In addition, we would appreciate you taking note of the following information:

1. It is only possible for a member association to enter its respective men’s or women’s team into the preliminary competition for the Olympic Football Tournaments Tokyo 2020 if its National Olympic Committee is officially recognised or is in the process of being recognised by the International Olympic Committee.
2. To be eligible for participation in the Olympic Games, players competing in the Men's and Women's Olympic Football Tournaments must comply with rule 40 (the "Eligibility Code") as well as with the bye-law to rule 40 of the Olympic Charter, as outlined in the attached document.

3. All players participating in the preliminary and final competitions of the Men's Olympic Football Tournament Tokyo 2020 shall have been born on or after 1 January 1997, with the exception of a maximum of three players who do not meet this age limit and who may also be included in the official list of players for the final competition.

4. There are no age restrictions for the players participating in the Women's Olympic Football Tournament Tokyo 2020.

We hope that this information will be of use to you. Further details will be communicated to you in due course.

Yours faithfully,

FÉDÉRATION INTERNATIONALE DE FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

II. PARTICIPATION IN THE OLYMPIC GAMES
40 Participation in the Olympic Games*

To participate in the Olympic Games, a competitor, team official or other team personnel must respect and comply with the Olympic Charter and World Anti-Doping Code, including the conditions of participation established by the IOC, as well as with the rules of the relevant IF as approved by the IOC, and the competitor, team official or other team personnel must be entered by his NOC.

Bye-law to Rule 40

1. Each IF establishes its sport’s rules for participation in the Olympic Games, including qualification criteria, in accordance with the Olympic Charter. Such criteria must be submitted to the IOC Executive Board for approval.

2. The application of the qualification criteria lies with the IFs, their affiliated national federations and the NOCs in the fields of their respective responsibilities.

3. Except as permitted by the IOC Executive Board, no competitor, team official or other team personnel who participates in the Olympic Games may allow his person, name, picture or sports performances to be used for advertising purposes during the Olympic Games.

4. The entry or participation of a competitor in the Olympic Games shall not be conditional on any financial consideration.
