FIFA organisational update – key senior management appointment

Dear Sir or Madam,

Following the recent confirmation of Mr Véron Mosengo-Omba as the CAF General Secretary, it gives me a great pleasure to inform you of the appointment of Mr Kenny Jean-Marie as the new FIFA Chief Member Associations Officer.

A French national, Mr Jean-Marie joined FIFA in 2020 as Director of Member Associations Services with the responsibility to oversee a programme delivering services to the FIFA's 211 member associations aimed at advancing their development through the FIFA Forward Programme.

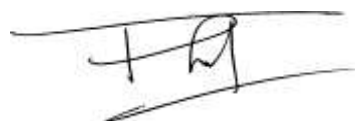

In the course of the past year, the work of Kenny and his team was critical to ensuring the successful rolling out of FIFA's ground-breaking COVID-19 Relief Plan to protect and preserve football from the consequences of the global pandemic.

The office of the Chief Member Associations Officer remains at your disposal at associations@fifa.org.

Please join me in wishing Kenny the very best of luck in his new role, as he and his team continue their work with the FIFA's 211 member associations for the benefit of the global game of football.

Yours faithfully,

FIFA

Fatma Samoura
Secretary General
