Party: Mooketsi Kgotlele  Position: Official  Affiliation: Botswana Football Association	Art. 12 FCE (2006)	Sanction by the independent Ethics Committee Ban for life + CHF 50,000 fine: 22 July 2019

The case of Mooketsi Kgotlele, official, Botswana Football Association

Matches: several international matches and general conspiracy

FIFA proceedings

Mr Kgotlele engaged in email exchanges with the convicted match-fixer Mr Wilson Raj Perumal between May and September 2009, which came to the attention of FIFA and led to the opening of a preliminary investigation into the matter by FIFA Integrity.

The investigation found that Mr Kgotlele had conspired with Mr Perumal to manipulate the results of international matches for betting purposes. Additionally, Mr Kgotlele allegedly conspired with Mr Perumal in order to recruit Botswanan senior and youth players for them to play under instructions in order to manipulate several international matches. Mr Kgotlele agreed to secure the participation of Botswanan national teams (senior and youth) in international matches organised by Mr Perumal in order to manipulate the results of such matches.

Additionally, Mr Kgotlele accepted money from Mr Perumal in exchange for influencing and/or manipulating the results of international matches.

Conclusion

The conclusion of the preliminary investigation resulted in the opening of formal proceedings against Mr Kgotlele. On 22 July 2019, the independent Ethics Committee imposed a lifetime ban and a fine of CHF 50,000 on Mr Kgotlele for having breached art. 12 of the FIFA Code of Ethics (2006).
