Article 3 International matches

- 1 International football matches recognised by FIFA are those between two Members of FIFA and for which each Member fields a representative team.
- 2 An international “A” match is a match arranged between two Members of FIFA and for which both Members field their first representative team.
- 3 The terms used to define a match are those that give an appropriate political and geographical description of the countries or territories of the Members whose teams are involved in the match and over which countries or territories the Members have sole control and jurisdiction.
- 4 If a Member allows one of its Leagues to choose a team that bears the name of its country, the match shall be considered an international match as described in par. 1 of this article.

Article 4 Interclub and interleague matches

- 1 Every international “A” match, including friendly matches and those played in tournaments or in games including football, shall be notified to the FIFA general secretariat by the Members organising them within 14 days of their being arranged. In any case, such notification shall reach FIFA at least 48 hours before the planned date of the match.
- 2 Failure to give notification of a match within this prescribed period shall incur a fine of USD 700. Failure to provide any notification whatsoever shall incur a fine of USD 1,500. These fines shall be paid to FIFA within 10 days of receipt of FIFA’s decision.

Article 6 Report

- 1 The General Secretary of the Member on whose territory the match is played shall, within 14 days of each international "A" match, notify the FIFA general secretariat of the result of the match, the surnames and first names of the referee and assistant referees who officiated and the surnames, first names and status of the Players and substitutes of each team, using the official form for this purpose. This form shall be filled in completely and signed.
- 2 Failure to send the form in within the prescribed period shall incur a fine of USD 100. Failure to send the form in at all shall incur a fine of USD 700. These fines shall be paid to FIFA within 10 days of receipt of FIFA's decision. In the case of repeated dilatoriness, the amount of the fine may be increased by the Executive Committee.

Article 7 Registration

- 1 The results of every international "A" match shall be recorded in an official list constantly updated by FIFA.
- 2 Such a match shall, however, not be registered on the official list of international matches involving two Members if either Member so desires and informs FIFA and the other Member to this effect at least 48 hours before the match takes place. - 2 The request for authorisation shall be submitted by the Member on whose territory the tournament is planned at least two months before the earliest of the proposed dates.
- 3 The request for authorisation shall be accompanied by a list of the teams that are planning to take part in the tournament and the tournament regulations drawn up by the organising body.
- 4 If a tournament is played on the territory of a Member without prior permission, the Member in question shall be sanctioned in compliance with the disciplinary regulations of the Confederation concerned and, if necessary, of FIFA.

Article 10 Levies

- 1 The levy to be paid to FIFA for each match played between two national "A" teams (in compliance with the Statutes), including the matches played in tournaments or in games including football (except for junior tournaments), shall comprise 2% (two per cent).
- 2 The amount shall be based on the gross receipts (ticket sales, advertising rights, rights for television and radio broadcasts, and film and video rights etc.) derived from matches.
- 3 The only deductions that may be made from the gross income are state or local taxes actually paid (but not bank charges or differences in exchange rates) and any charges for the hire of the stadium. The total amount deducted shall not exceed 30% of the entire gross income.
- 4 Members affiliated to Confederations are governed by the provisions of par. 1 of this article, subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) the levy due to FIFA in respect of matches played on the territory of a Confederation between Members belonging to that Confederation is only 1%, the remaining 1% being payable directly to the Confederation involved;

Article 15 Principle

- 1 Any person holding the nationality of a country is eligible to play for the representative teams of the Association of his country. The Executive Committee shall decide on the conditions of eligibility for any Player who assumes a new nationality and for whom par. 3 of this article does not apply, or for any Player who would, in principle, be eligible to play for the teams of more than one Association due to his nationality.
- 2 As a general rule, any Player who has already represented one Association (either in full or in part) in an official competition of any category may not play an international match with another Association team.
- 3 If a Player has more than one nationality, or if a Player acquires a new nationality, or if the Player is eligible to play for several Association teams due to his nationality, the following exceptions apply:
 - (a) Up to his 21st birthday, a player may only once request changing the Association for which he is eligible to play international matches.

A Player may exercise this right to change Associations only if he has not played at "A" international level for his current Association and if at the time of his first full or partial appearance in an international match in an official competition of any other category, he already had such nationalities. Changing Associations is not permitted during the preliminary competition of a FIFA competition, continental championship or Olympic Tournaments if a player has already been fielded in a match of one of these competitions.
 - (b) Any Player who has already acquired eligibility to play for one Association but has another nationality imposed upon him by a government authority, is also entitled to change associations. This provision is not subject to any age limits.
- 4 Any Player who wishes to exercise this right to change Associations shall submit a written and substantiated request to the FIFA general secretariat. After submitting the request, the Player is no longer qualified to play for his current Association's team. The Players' Status Committee shall decide on the request. The committee's decision may be brought before the Appeal Committee. The Regulations for the Status and Transfer of Players contain more detailed provisions.
- 5 Any Players who have already had their 21st birthday at the time of implementation of these provisions and who fulfil the requirements in par. 3 (a) are also entitled to submit such a request to change Associations. This entitlement will expire definitively twelve months after implementation of this provision.

Article 16 Amendments to the Laws

- 1 FIFA shall notify its Members of any amendments and decisions regarding the Laws of the Game within one month of the ordinary annual meeting of IFAB.
