Except as explicitly otherwise set forth in these Media and Marketing Regulations, no Participating Club is entitled to directly or indirectly exploit or in any manner use any Media Rights, Marketing Rights, Intellectual Property Rights (including the Competition Marks) and/or any other commercial or other rights and opportunities (including any title and interest in, and to, the Competition or the respective part thereof, including all Competition Matches and all ancillary events organised in connection with the Competition), whether currently existing or created in the future.

Each Participating Club shall be prohibited from challenging by any means FIFA's ownership of any Media Rights, Marketing Rights, Intellectual Property Rights and all other commercial or other rights and opportunities (including any title and interest in, and to, the Competition or the respective part thereof, including all Competition Matches and all ancillary events organised in connection with the Competition), whether currently existing or created in the future.

- 1.2. Cooperation of Participating Clubs: As a general principle, each Participating Club and, to the extent applicable, each Team Delegation Member, must strictly comply with the terms and conditions outlined in these Media and Marketing Regulations in relation to the participation of its representative team in the Competition. Each Participating Club is fully responsible for the full compliance with these Media and Marketing Regulations by its Team Delegation Members, its Club Affiliates and any third party contracted to the Participating Club, and shall therefore immediately notify its Team Delegation Members, its Club Affiliates and further contracted third parties of the content of these Media and Marketing Regulations. Each Participating Club shall inform its Club Affiliates that they have no Marketing Rights or Media Rights in connection with the Competition and, in particular, that they may not conduct any promotional activities which involve the use of FIFA's marks or Competition Marks or any other marks which are confusingly similar to FIFA's marks or the Competition Marks.

Each Participating Club shall assist FIFA in resolving any intellectual property infringements or Ambush Marketing activities involving the Club Affiliates. Participating Clubs are expressly prohibited from identifying their Club Affiliates in connection with any of the Competition Marks or FIFA's marks in any media (including but not limited to any promotional materials) in such a way as may give rise to an association between their Club Affiliates and FIFA or the Competition.

Participating Clubs shall indemnify, defend and hold FIFA, the LOC and all of their officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents and all other auxiliary persons free and harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, fines and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) of whatsoever kind or nature resulting from, arising out of, or attributable to, any non-compliance with these Media and Marketing Regulations by the Participating Clubs, their Team Delegation Members, their Club Affiliates and any third parties contracted to the Participating Clubs.

- 1.3. No right of association: No third party may, other than as permitted under these Media and Marketing Regulations and/or as separately authorised by FIFA, do anything which gives rise to any association between such third party and the Competition and/or FIFA, or which directly or indirectly exploits the goodwill associated with the Competition and/or FIFA.

Participating Clubs shall immediately notify FIFA, in writing, of any infringement of these Media and Marketing Regulations of which they become aware.

- 1.4. Transfer of rights: To the extent that any local or national laws or regulations may result in any rights, including any Media Rights, Marketing Rights, Intellectual Property Rights (including the Competition Marks), in relation to the Competition, or any Competition Match or any ancillary events organised by, or under the auspices of, FIFA in connection with the Competition being owned or controlled by any Confederation, Host Member Association or Participating Club (whether by virtue of the hosting or organisation of (in respect of the Host Member Association), or the participation in, any Competition Match, or otherwise), the relevant Confederation, Host Member Association or Participating Club hereby unconditionally assigns and/or transfers to FIFA, free of any charge, any and all such rights in perpetuity for FIFA's unfettered exploitation, and waives any and all claims to exercise and/or exploit such rights itself or to grant to any third party the right to exercise such rights.

Upon request by FIFA, the relevant Confederation, the Host Member Association and/or any Participating Club agree to execute, at their own costs, in a timely manner and in compliance with any instructions given by FIFA, any and all clearances or other documents as may be required by any local or national laws or regulations to effect such assignment, transfer and/or waiver of such rights to FIFA and to enable the free and unfettered, direct or indirect, exploitation of any and all Media Rights, Marketing Rights, Intellectual Property Rights and other present or future commercial and other rights and opportunities by FIFA.

- 1.5. Club Marks: To assist with the implementation of these Media and Marketing Regulations, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, each Participating Club hereby licenses to FIFA the right to use and/or the right to sub-license the right to use, in perpetuity and free of any charge, any Club Marks as well as the visual representations of the Playing Equipment and uniforms in connection with the participation of the Participating Club in the Competition.

In this regard, in relation to Competition-related merchandising, each Participating Club agrees that FIFA shall be entitled to use and/or sub-license the right to use any of the Club Marks (on a stand-alone basis or in combination with the Club Marks of other Participating Clubs) together with FIFA's marks and/or the Competition Marks, provided that all such goods or items of merchandise are otherwise unbranded. Participating Clubs shall, upon request, provide notification to FIFA (and/or any nominee of FIFA) of their acknowledgement of this provision.

FIFA's right to use and/or sub-license such Club Marks and the visual representations of the Playing Equipment and uniforms shall be exclusive in respect of, or in connection with, the filming, recording and broadcasting of any Competition Match in any media.

FIFA's right to use and/or sub-license such Club Marks and the visual representations of the Playing Equipment and uniforms shall be non-exclusive in respect of all other uses, whether it be in connection with the promotion of the Competition, or use in electronic or print publications, electronic software games, media-related products and services, merchandising, philatelic and numismatic products or otherwise.

In any case, FIFA shall not apply any variations or modifications to the official versions of the Club Marks as determined by each Participating Club and shall not use any Club Marks in any manner which:

- (i) would imply that any Participating Club endorses a product or brand of any commercial entity, including any Commercial Affiliate;
- (ii) is deceptive or misleading;
- (iii) compromises or reflects unfavourably upon the good name, goodwill, reputation, political or religious impartiality and image of the Participating Club; or
- (iv) may jeopardise or limit the Participating Club's proprietary interests in the Club Marks.

With the sole exception of the usage by FIFA of the Club Marks for mere editorial purposes in any form, FIFA shall:

- (i) not use the Club Marks on a stand-alone basis, and must always use any Club Mark with either a minimum of three (3) other Club Marks or a Competition Mark; and
- (ii) ensure that no single Club Mark, where used with such other Club Marks, receives prominence over any other Club Mark on any single item of merchandise or promotional material.

- 1.6. Team Delegation cooperation and consent: To assist with the implementation of these Media and Marketing Regulations, each Participating Club (i) must ensure that all Team Delegation Members participate in a FIFA photo and/or video shoot (all such photographs and images to be used and/or sub-licensed by FIFA in accordance with the remainder of this article 1.6); and (ii) shall secure written confirmation from each Team Delegation Member of FIFA's right to use and/or FIFA's right to sub-license the right to use, in perpetuity and free of any charge, any of their records, names, photographs and images (including any still and moving representation thereof), which may appear or be generated in connection with the participation of the Team Delegation Members in the Competition (including, but not limited to photographs of Team Delegation Members taken for accreditation purposes). FIFA may not use the Team Delegation Members' records, names, photographs and images (including any still and moving representation thereof) in any manner which would imply that any Participating Club and/or Team Delegation Member endorses the products or brands of any commercial entity, including any Commercial Affiliate.

FIFA's right to use and/or sub-license such records, names, photographs and images shall be exclusive in respect of, or in connection with, the filming, recording and broadcasting of any Competition Match or any official media product relating to the Competition or to FIFA (e.g. the Official FIFA Film etc.) in any media.

FIFA's right to use and/or sub-license such records, names, photographs and images shall be non-exclusive in respect of all other uses, whether it be in connection with the promotion of the Competition, any editorial use in any media, irrespective of the transmission form (including, without limitation, electronic or print publications, television feeds, broadband and mobile feeds, giant screen presentations, downloadable images), electronic software games, media-related products and services, merchandising, philatelic and numismatic products or otherwise, promotion of the media products and programming, save that FIFA may not exercise any such rights in any manner which would imply that any Team Delegation Member endorses the products or brands of any commercial entity, including any Commercial Affiliate.

Each Participating Club shall secure any and all necessary authorisations for FIFA to use information about the players of the Participating Teams (such as players' statistics – height, weight, age, etc.) as well as details of the Participating Team's history in connection with the participation of the Participating Club and Team Delegation Members in the Competition.

2. COMPETITION MARKS

- 2.1. Ownership of Competition Marks: FIFA is and remains the sole owner of all of the Competition Marks, and retains the sole right to develop any marks, logos and symbols for and/or in connection with the Competition (including each phase of the Competition).
- 2.2. No development of Competitive Marks: To (i) ensure consistency in the 'look and feel' of the entire Competition; and (ii) prevent and/or arrest any instances of Competition-related Ambush Marketing by Club Affiliates or other third parties, each Participating Club must ensure that neither itself, nor any of its Club Affiliates, nor any third party contracted to a Participating Club, develops, uses, registers, adopts, or creates any mark, logo or symbol which refers to the Competition or any phase of the Competition, or which is in FIFA's reasonable opinion confusingly similar to, is a colourable imitation of, a derivation of, or which unfairly competes with any of the Competition Marks.

In particular, each Participating Club agrees to refrain from, and to ensure that its respective Club Affiliates and all contracted third parties refrain from, the development, use or registration of any name, logo, trade mark, indicia, brand name, symbol, service mark or other mark (whether registered or unregistered) or designation which may be inferred by the public as identifying with FIFA, any phase of the Competition or the LOC, including the words 'World Cup', 'Mundial', 'FIFA', 'Coupe du Monde', 'Copa do Mundo', 'Copa del Mundo', 'WM' or 'Weltmeisterschaft' (or any other term used in any language which, in FIFA's reasonable opinion, is capable of identifying the Competition or any phase of the Competition), or the development, use or registration of any dates in conjunction with the name of the host country, venues or host cities of the Competition, or any similar indicia or derivation of such terms or dates in any language.

- 2.3. No challenge to Competition Marks: Each Participating Club undertakes not to oppose, and to ensure that none of its Club Affiliates or contracted third parties oppose, any of the trade mark or copyright applications filed by FIFA, Commercial Affiliates or other affiliates authorised by FIFA, nominees or licensees in respect of the Competition Marks, or seek to cancel any such registrations held by FIFA. No Participating Club may in any way challenge, or apply for any copyright, trade mark or patent protection, or domain name registration in respect of the Competition Marks which would adversely affect FIFA's proprietary interests in the Competition Marks. In the event that any Club Affiliate or contracted third party opposes any trade mark or copyright application filed by FIFA or any affiliate, nominee or licensee of FIFA in respect of the Competition Marks, the relevant Participating Club must ensure, and take all measures required by FIFA to ensure, that the relevant entity immediately desists from such activity. The provisions of this article 2.3 do not apply where a Competition Mark includes an intellectual property right belonging to a Participating Club (or Club Affiliate or contracted third party) which was registered prior to the publication of these Media and Marketing Regulations.

3. AMBUSH MARKETING PROHIBITION AND FURTHER INFRINGEMENTS

- 3.1. Anti-infringement undertaking: The commercial value of the Competition (and the value of any commercial rights to the Competition) may be substantially diminished if any Club Affiliate or any third party contracted to a Participating Club engages in or permits any Ambush Marketing activity. FIFA's ability to finance the Competition may be substantially diminished by Ambush Marketing activities. Each Participating Club is therefore required to ensure that its Club Affiliates or further contracted third parties (i) do not directly or indirectly become (or seek to become) associated with FIFA, the Competition, or any other competition or event organised by, or under the auspices of, FIFA; (ii) do not exploit the goodwill of the Competition, FIFA, or any other competition or event organised by, or under the auspices of, FIFA; and (iii) comply with the provisions of these Media and Marketing Regulations regarding the use of the Competition Marks.

- 3.2. Notification to Participating Clubs: In accordance with current practice, FIFA will notify a Participating Club if any of its Club Affiliates, or any third party contracted to the Participating Club, is conducting any activity which, in FIFA's reasonable opinion, constitutes a violation of these Media and Marketing Regulations, including but not limited to the following violations:
- (i) an infringement of FIFA's Intellectual Property Rights (including the Competition Marks);
 - (ii) an unauthorised competition, sweepstake or other advertising or promotional activity involving, purporting to involve, or which could reasonably be understood to involve, the use of Competition tickets or access to Official Training Sites;
 - (iii) an infringement of the restrictions on the activities of the Club Affiliates or any third party contracted to the Participating Club as described in these Media and Marketing Regulations; or
 - (iv) any other Ambush Marketing activity.
- 3.3. Scope: The provisions of articles 3.1 and 3.2 above apply even if the infringing activities are not directly connected to the relevant Club Affiliate's or contracted third party's association with the Participating Club.
- 3.4. Cessation of Ambush Marketing activity: Following written notification by FIFA of any Ambush Marketing activity or any further violation by any Club Affiliate or any third party contracted to a Participating Club, each Participating Club will ensure, and take all measures required by FIFA to ensure, that the relevant Club Affiliate or contracted third party immediately ceases and desists from such activity and that such Club Affiliate or third party provides FIFA with written undertakings agreeing to immediately cease and desist from, and to refrain from any future occurrences of, any Ambush Marketing activity or further violation of these Media and Marketing Regulations. This provision also applies when the Ambush Marketing activity is conducted by the Club Affiliate or contracted third party itself or by any of its affiliated or group companies.
- 3.5. Notification by Participating Clubs: Each Participating Club shall use its best efforts to monitor the advertising market in its home country for any Ambush Marketing activity conducted in that market, and shall promptly notify FIFA about any such activity.

In such case, by the time of the 'Team Workshop' held by FIFA prior to the Competition, the Participating Club shall inform FIFA in writing and in detail about any such projects, plans and initiatives for its review and approval or disapproval. Any approval must be in writing.

Prior to the Competition, FIFA will publish guidelines governing the production of film material by Team Delegation Members.

- 5.3. During its stay in the dressing room of the winning Participating Team, the FIFA TV Film Crew or its nominees' access will respect the privacy of Team Delegation Members and shall act as non-intrusively as possible in a manner to be agreed upon with the dedicated liaison of the Participating Team.

7. EQUIPMENT, OTHER ITEMS & BEVERAGES IN CONTROLLED AREAS

- 7.1. Equipment Regulations: During the Competition Period, each Participating Club must fully comply with the Equipment Regulations in their applicable form. In case of any inconsistency of these Media and Marketing Regulations with the Equipment Regulations, these Media and Marketing Regulations shall take precedence over the terms of the Equipment Regulations, and in such case the relevant terms of the Equipment Regulations shall be deemed amended accordingly. In keeping with the 'clean site' principles at all FIFA competitions, the following additional provisions shall apply to Equipment within the Controlled Areas (including the 'inner enclosure') during the Competition Period:

- (i) Equipment: Recognition of sponsor advertising of a single Club Affiliate on Playing Equipment is permitted on the front of the Participating Club's shirt only, provided that:
- a. the Club Affiliate's sponsor advertising represents a single brand and not any form of combination or composite branding. Combination or composite branding may include, by way of example only, sponsor advertising graphic representations composed of two or more distinct products or brands, or a composite brand name which, if separated, comprises two or more distinct brand names;
 - b. the Club Affiliate is the main sponsor of the Participating Club;
 - c. the Club Affiliate sponsor advertising displayed during the Competition corresponds to the Club Affiliate sponsor advertising displayed on the players' shirts throughout the latest or current season of the Participating Club's domestic league and/or throughout the international club competition that enabled the Participating Club to qualify for the Competition;
 - d. the surface area of the Club Affiliate sponsor advertising does not exceed 200cm² (two hundred square centimetres) and must be positioned on the front of the shirt, in the centre of the torso. The lettering used must not exceed 10cm

(ten centimetres) in height;

- e. the advertising of tobacco or strong alcoholic beverages (e.g. liquors and spirits), as well as slogans of a political, sexist, religious or racist nature, or for other causes that offend common decency, are strictly prohibited; and
- f. for the avoidance of doubt, no Club Affiliate sponsor advertising or recognition (not being of the manufacturer in accordance with the Equipment Regulations) is permitted on any other piece of Playing Equipment.

The Participating Club's sports equipment must otherwise comply with the Equipment Regulations and all applicable laws of the Competition Territory. All restrictions in the Equipment Regulations on Equipment shall also be deemed to apply to all apparel, Special Equipment items such as items worn underneath Playing Equipment, other Equipment items and all items and apparel worn in replacement of, Playing Equipment, including T-shirts and any 'celebratory' apparel worn and/or displayed by any Team Delegation Members during or following the conclusion of any Competition Match.

- (ii) Bags and further items: All bags and/or further items used by, or belonging to, Team Delegation Members which are brought into any Competition Stadium (including pitch level (i.e. stadium bowl) and all media areas, including the so-called 'mixed zones') on Matchdays and/or non-Matchdays in case of an official training session must be free of all branding other than (i) the official emblem of the Participating Club (in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Equipment Regulations which apply accordingly); and (ii) the logo of the manufacturer. The maximum size of the manufacturer's logo shall be 25cm². No more than one manufacturer's logo may appear on any such bag or further items.
- (iii) Formal attire: All formal attire (such as ties, suits, dress shirts, accessory items, etc.) worn by the Team Delegation Members within the Controlled Areas must be completely free of third-party (neither commercial nor manufacturer) branding (whether sewn-in or separately attached), other than the emblem of their Participating Club. The same restriction applies to both formal attire and Special Equipment items if formal attire is worn together with Special Equipment items.
- (iv) Submission of Equipment items to FIFA: The Equipment Regulations require Participating Clubs to submit to FIFA, for FIFA's approval, one sample of all Equipment items. Each Participating Club shall submit to FIFA, for FIFA's approval, one (1) sample of all Equipment items to be worn by their Team Delegation Members within the Controlled Areas during the Competition Period, namely all Playing Equipment items, Special Equipment items and further apparel worn in replacement of Playing Equipment (including any 'celebratory' apparel) and all formal attire. Participating Clubs shall be notified by FIFA of the deadline for submission of such items.

- (v) Wearable technology: Special items worn by players for performance-related purposes, such as electronic performance tracking system devices, must be tested and certified by, or under the auspices of, FIFA subject to Law 4 of the Laws of the Game, before they are allowed to be used during any Competition Match. Any Participating Club intending to use such devices must inform FIFA and ensure that their technology provider is on the FIFA list of approved devices or that the device is in the process of completing the testing and certification in order to be approved ahead of the Competition. Detailed information about the tests and certification process can be found on <https://football-technology.fifa.com/en/standards/wearable-epts/>.

Any data collected by such special item and any interpretation of such data may only be used by the respective Participating Club and/or the individual player for performance-monitoring purposes (including physical, technical and tactical data). Any use of such data, or interpretation thereof, for any other purpose, in particular for commercial purposes, in association with any third party and/or the disclosure of such data and/or interpretation thereof to the public is strictly prohibited. The use of any such special item inside the technical area of a Competition Stadium is prohibited. The special items worn by players for performance-related purposes shall not display any branding of the manufacturer or any third party, with the exception of one tonal identification of its manufacturer, which shall not be visible whilst such special item is used.

In order to protect the integrity of, and FIFA's rights in, the Competition, FIFA may impose further restrictions on the collection, use and/or interpretation of the data collected by the use of such special items worn by players for performance-related purposes.

7.2. No advertising on Equipment: Unless otherwise expressly permitted under the Equipment Regulations or these Media and Marketing Regulations, all Team Delegation Members are prohibited from displaying any

- (i) commercial, political, religious or personal messages, or slogans in any language,
- (ii) commercial branding, and/or
- (iii) manufacturer marks or name of any kind on their Playing Equipment, Special Equipment, other Equipment items, formal attire, further apparel worn in replacement of Playing Equipment or other items used including, without limitation, bags, ball bags, goalkeeping gloves, beverage containers and medical bags, or on their person for the duration of their stay in a Controlled Area on Matchdays (i.e. in respect to the Participating Clubs participating in the Competition Match in question) and non-Matchdays. This provision includes all personal items (including hats, sunglasses, bags, luggage, headphones and other fashion accessories) in the possession of, or worn by, the Team Delegation Members.

- 7.3. Equipment of ball boys and girls, player escorts and flag bearers: Notwithstanding article 59 of the Equipment Regulations, the Equipment items worn by ball boys and girls, player escorts and flag bearers during Competition Matches may display the branding of Commercial Affiliates as approved by FIFA.

 - (iv) 50 plastic drinking bottles;
 - (v) 3 x 2 captain's armbands in contrasting colours;
 - (vi) 3 ball bags; and
 - (vii) official Competition match balls.

During the Competition Period, once a Participating Team has arrived in the Competition Stadium for a Competition Match or an official training session, the FIFA General Coordinator will provide each Participating Team with a sufficient number of player warm-up/training bibs (which shall exclusively bear FIFA, FIFA.com and/or Competition branding). These bibs must be used to the exclusion of any other branded or non-branded bibs, and no branding may be added to the player warm-up/training bibs provided by FIFA. The Participating Team must return such bibs after the conclusion of each Competition Match or official training session.

With the sole exception of training sessions at the Official Training Sites, during which the Team Delegation Members are permitted to use their own technical equipment provided by non-Commercial Affiliates, Team Delegation Members are not permitted to use any other items of the same or similar type of technical equipment in the Controlled Areas. The above exception shall not apply to official training sessions held in a Competition Stadium. In any case, during any training sessions at the Official Training Site and any official training sessions held in a Competition Stadium, the Team Delegation Members must exclusively use the official match ball of the Competition as provided by a Commercial Affiliate.

7.5. Consumption of beverages in Controlled Areas: The following provisions apply to the consumption of beverages in Controlled Areas:

- (i) Supply of beverages: Participating Clubs will be provided with products from the Coca-Cola Company, including water and sports drinks, for use in the Controlled Areas. The quantity of beverages to be supplied shall be determined by FIFA.

If Participating Clubs wish to use beverage products manufactured by any other entity, they must be stored or contained in the plastic drinking bottles provided by FIFA as technical equipment, as outlined in article 7.4 above, prior to arrival at the Controlled Area.

- (ii) No competing beverage brands: Participating Clubs are expressly prohibited from bringing the beverage products of competitors of the Coca-Cola Company into the Controlled Areas, in particular the dressing rooms, pitch-side areas at any Competition Stadium, Official FIFA/LOC Media Activities, mixed zones, interview rooms, and media and television centres, unless such products are contained within the containers provided by FIFA prior to arrival at the applicable Controlled Area.

8. SPECIFIC RULES FOR THE OFFICIAL TRAINING SITES

Participating Clubs must not display, or arrange for the display of, or authorise the distribution of, any advertising or other promotional materials at the Official Training Sites. Notwithstanding this, the terms and conditions of article 11.2(iv) below shall apply regarding Club Media Activities at Official Training Sites.

8.2. Attendance and ticketing: All training sessions at the Official Training Sites are controlled by FIFA and the LOC. - 9.2. Access to Participating Teams: To support FIFA with such documentation, editorial coverage and promotion of the Competition, each Participating Club is required to assist, and must ensure that each Team Delegation Member assists, to the best possible extent in their respective tasks, the FIFA TV Film Crews. FIFA will work with the Participating Teams to establish good cooperation related to this access. Each Participating Club shall appoint one Team Delegation Member as a liaison between the Participating Club and FIFA and to act as team media officer.

Each Participating Club hereby grants to FIFA, the FIFA Officials and/or their nominees, the non-exclusive right to gain preferred access, for interview purposes, to all Team Delegation Members, as reasonably requested by FIFA, the FIFA Officials and/or their nominees. Each Participating Club shall grant FIFA, the FIFA Officials and/or their nominees free access, at any time during the period commencing five (5) days prior to the first Competition Match of the Participating Team and concluding twelve (12) hours after the final whistle of the last Competition Match of the Participating Team in the Competition, to any area in the facility in which a Participating Team is training and/or staying, as well as any area in which a Competition Match is being staged, including but not limited to the Official Training Sites, Team Hotels and any media centres of the Participating Club.

In connection with the Participating Teams' dressing rooms at the Competition Stadiums and Official Training Sites, and at Team Hotels, such access shall only be granted upon permission by the competent Team Delegation Members (not to be unreasonably withheld), it being understood that sporting concerns and the privacy of Team Delegation Members shall prevail.

Without prejudice to the above, each Participating Club must ensure that Team Delegation Members are available in the 'pre-mixed zone area' of the applicable Competition Stadium and in such area of the applicable Official Training Site as designated by FIFA for post-match and post-training session interviews, respectively, upon reasonable request by FIFA, the FIFA Officials, the FIFA TV Film Crews or their nominees.

- 9.3. Media activities:
- (i) Club Media Day: For the purpose of providing members of the media with an

The location of the Club Media Day shall be either at the Participating Club's home stadium or home training ground, and shall take place preferably at the end of October or immediately after the Participating Club's qualification for the Competition, if later.

It is essential that the FIFA TV Film Crews (including the Competition host broadcaster), Media Rights Licensees, other FIFA representatives as well as international and domestic members of the media be permitted access to attend the Participating Club's Club Media Day.

- (ii) Arrival in Competition Territory: On the day of its arrival in the Competition Territory, each Participating Club is obliged to hold Official FIFA/LOC Media Activities, ensuring the presence of the Participating Team's head coach and at least one (1) player who is likely to be a member of the Participating Team's starting eleven for the first Competition Match.  - c. An official press conference will be organised by FIFA in the relevant Competition Stadium on the day preceding the Matchday following the official training session. This press conference must be attended by the Participating Team's head coach and at least one (1) player likely to be a member of the starting eleven for the respective Competition Match. Such official press conference will be held in the Competition Stadium, regardless of where the official training session is held.

- (v) Matchday media activities: On Matchday, the Participating Club must ensure participation in the following Official FIFA/LOC Media Activities coordinated by FIFA in the Competition Stadium:
- a. Sufficiently in advance before the arrival of the Team Delegation before each Competition Match, in close coordination with FIFA, the host broadcaster appointed by FIFA shall be granted access to the Participating Team's dressing room for filming. This includes unilateral stand-up interviews by up to two Media Rights Licensees that are filmed by the host broadcaster;

Upon arrival of the Team Delegation before each Competition Match, the Participating Team's head coach or other members of the Team Delegation, as well as one of the eligible players notified on the official start list for the respective Competition Match, shall be made available for 'upon arrival' interviews, provided the applicable Participating Team consents to such interviews;

This restriction includes, but is not limited to, backdrops, signage, products, services and (other than permitted by the Equipment Regulations or permitted pursuant to articles 7.1 to 7.5 above) branding on Equipment, other apparel or further Equipment items worn or used by players and/or other Team Delegation Members.
- (viii) Media guides and other publications may not be distributed by or on behalf of any Participating Club, Club Affiliate and/or any other third party at any Official FIFA/LOC Media Activities, unless previously approved by FIFA in writing.

By way of example, the Winner's Trophy may not be displayed or paraded as part of a celebratory tour which features or displays the branding of any Club Affiliates or any other commercial entities; and
- (iii) The Club Affiliates of the winning Participating Club, or any contracted third party, are not entitled to use the Original Trophy, the Winner's Trophy, or any images of the Original Trophy or any other replica of the Original Trophy, including the Winner's Trophy, in any publicity or promotional materials or on any Digital Media platforms celebrating the success of the winning Participating Team.

To preserve the status and commercial value of the Original Trophy, each Participating Club agrees that:

- (i) Except for miniature replicas of the Original Trophy as set out below, the winning Participating Club is not entitled to produce its own, unofficial replicas of the Original Trophy;
- (ii) Neither the Original Trophy nor the Winner's Trophy nor any other replica of the Original Trophy may be used, portrayed or exhibited in any manner which could be interpreted as being inappropriate, derogatory, or detrimental to the inherent value of the Original Trophy, or the brand or the image and reputation of the Original Trophy;
- (iii) No images of the Original Trophy or the Winner's Trophy may be used or licensed for use on items of clothing or other merchandise;

- (iv) The Original Trophy is and remains a FIFA trade mark and the winning Participating Club has no right or licence to use photographs of the Original Trophy, the Winner's Trophy or any further replica of the Original Trophy (or to grant any such right or licence) for any commercial purpose other than for purely editorial purposes to accompany written text in electronic or printed materials. The winning Participating Club agrees to remind photographers, press and media of these restrictions prior to all formal presentations of the Winner's Trophy or further replicas of the Original Trophy; and
- (v) The winning Participating Club shall take all reasonable steps, at its own expense, to ensure the security of the Winner's Trophy while the Winner's Trophy is in its possession.

Subject to the prior written approval of FIFA, the winning Participating Club may, at its own expense, appoint FIFA's manufacturer to produce miniature replicas of the Original Trophy to present to all Team Delegation Members and the coach of the winning Participating Team only, provided that all such individuals undertake to FIFA not to use such miniature replicas of the Original Trophy for any commercial purpose whatsoever. The maximum size of such miniature replicas of the Original Trophy must not exceed a height of 15cm, and must otherwise be a 'to scale' replica of the Original Trophy.

It is further required that:

- (i) the Winner's Trophy may remain in the temporary custody of the winning Participating Club but remains at all times the property of FIFA and must be returned immediately to FIFA if so requested by FIFA in writing; and
- (ii) the Winner's Trophy may not be provided to any third party for display or use without FIFA's prior written permission; and
- (iii) any tours featuring the Winner's Trophy must be approved by FIFA in advance in writing.

- 12.2. Trophy use requirements – past winners: Trophies awarded to past winners of the FIFA Club World Cup must remain within the relevant club's direct control and should not leave the club's home country without the prior written consent of FIFA. Clubs which have been awarded a Winner's Trophy are required to ensure that the Winner's Trophy is always presented in the historical context of the respective competition and that they do not permit the Winner's Trophy awarded to them to be used in any way which could lead to an association by any third party, including Commercial Affiliates, Club Affiliates and/or any third party contracted to the clubs, with the Original Trophy, the Competition and/or previous editions of the Competition. In particular, Club Affiliates and/or any third party contracted to the clubs may not be granted any rights or visibility where the Original Trophy, the Winner's Trophy or any further replica of the Original Trophy is present or portrayed. This prohibition shall also apply to the parading of, or

- 12.3. Merchandising restrictions – past winners: Clubs that have won previous editions of the FIFA Club World Cup are prohibited from developing, creating, using, selling or distributing any promotional materials or merchandise bearing any representation of the Original Trophy or any mark, emblem or device referring to any past edition of the FIFA Club World Cup. Furthermore, neither the Original Trophy, the Winner's Trophy nor any stylized representation thereof may be portrayed on any Digital Medium.

13. PERMITTED USE OF COMPETITION MARKS

- 13.1. Use of Competition Marks by the Participating Clubs: The following provisions apply:

- (i) General: The Competition Marks and the Composite Logo may only be used by Participating Clubs for the purpose of referring descriptively to their participation in the Competition. All commercial or promotional use of the Competition Marks and/or the Composite Logo by Participating Clubs and/or their Club Affiliates and/or any third party contracted to the Participating Clubs is strictly prohibited. The provisions of this article 13.1 shall apply from the date of these Media and Marketing Regulations and shall continue to apply after the expiry of the Competition Period until FIFA notifies Participating Clubs otherwise;
- (ii) Competition Name: Participating Clubs are required, whenever referring to the Competition, to only use the Competition Name (and each such use must be in an editorial context only);
- (iii) Composite Logo: Participating Clubs are permitted to create a Composite Logo incorporating both the Official Emblem and the Participating Club's own emblem. Upon request by the Participating Clubs, to be addressed to mailto:ma.approvals@fifa.org, the materials to form a Composite Logo may be downloaded from FIFA's online digital archive at www.FIFAdigitalarchive.com. The Composite Logo may only feature the Official Emblem and the Participating Club's own emblem as well as the descriptive designation 'Finalist'. No other mark may be included without FIFA's written permission, such permission being required before any use of the Composite Logo. No other mark may be placed next to a Composite Logo in such a way that it causes confusion as to whether or not such mark is part of the Composite Logo. Participating Clubs must obtain FIFA's written approval of their Composite Logo prior to its use. The proposed Composite Logo must therefore be submitted to FIFA in writing to ma.approvals@fifa.org. For the avoidance of doubt, all uses of the Composite Logo must also be submitted for FIFA's approval in accordance with paragraph (viii) of this article 13.1;
- (iv) Use of Competition Marks and Composite Logo: Neither the Competition Marks

nor the Composite Logo may be used in proximity to the names, logos or trade marks of Club Affiliates or any third party other than the Commercial Affiliates.

Furthermore, neither the Competition Marks nor the Composite Logo may be used by Participating Clubs in the following manner:

- As part of any advertising or promotional activity or strapline used in connection with any Club Affiliate;
- On gifts, premiums, items of merchandise or articles of clothing and Equipment for sale to the public (such as team kits to fans) or for any other commercial purpose whatsoever; or
- On any official printed matter (including stationery and business cards) of a Participating Club which also displays the names and/or logos of Club Affiliates (except where the names/logos are those of the parties appointed by FIFA as Commercial Affiliates of the Competition).

- (v) Club printed materials: Participating Clubs must ensure that their printed materials (whether printed or electronic) produced in relation to their participation in the Competition (such as posters, guides, media guides, programmes, magazines, maps, booklets, books, electronic publishing, CD-ROMs, bulletins, etc.) do not feature any of the Competition Marks and/or the Composite Logo (or any other Competition-related trade marks) other than in a purely editorial context only. For example, if a Participating Club publication has a Competition Mark and/or the Composite Logo on either the front cover or back cover of such a publication or printed material (solely in a purely editorial context), no commercial identifications or advertisements (including those of Club Affiliates or further third parties contracted to the Participating Club) shall appear on either the front cover or back cover of such printed materials. The Competition Name may be used in an editorial manner for descriptive purposes only. Competition Marks and the Composite Logo may appear inside Participating Club publications (solely in a purely editorial context), provided that they do not appear on or opposite a page displaying any commercial identifications or advertisements.

The covers and titles of Club printed materials must make it clear that they are publications of the Participating Club and not FIFA and/or LOC publications. As an example, the following title would be considered acceptable:

- 'Official [Name of Publication] for [Team] at the FIFA Club World Cup Qatar 2020™'.

All such printed materials must be submitted for FIFA's approval in advance, in accordance with paragraph (viii) of this article 13.1.

- (vi) No association with Club Affiliates: Participating Clubs must ensure that no association whatsoever is created between their Club Affiliates and/or any third party contracted to the Participating Club, and the Competition in any of their promotional materials. Club Affiliates and/or any third party contracted to the Participating Club shall not use any of the Competition Marks or the Composite Logo in any of their own materials, save in the event that they are Commercial Affiliates of the Competition or if they use the designation (for example) '[Sponsor] of [Participating Club] at the FIFA Club World Cup Qatar 2020™';

- (vii) Other marks: Participating Clubs shall not use (and must ensure that their Club Affiliates and/or any third party contracted to the Participating Clubs do not use) any other marks, devices, symbols, logos or phrases to identify the Competition (including the Trophy);
- (viii) Approvals: All proposed uses of the Competition Marks and the Composite Logo, together with a summary of the proposed context and distribution channel, must be submitted to FIFA via the 'Marks Submission Forms' on the FIFA Digital Archive platform or via email to ma.approvals@fifa.org. The form is linked to the competent approval coordinator at FIFA. A sample of all printed materials incorporating the Competition Marks and/or the Composite Logo must also be submitted for FIFA's prior written approval, showing their layout and the positioning of the Competition Marks and Composite Logo as well as the marks and logos of the Club Affiliates and other third parties. Such samples must be submitted at least thirty (30) days prior to the start of the Competition. Participating Clubs shall ensure that they make any changes requested by FIFA to bring the printed materials into compliance with these regulations.

13.2. Club Websites: The following provisions apply in respect of the Competition:

- (i) Link to FIFA.com: Each Participating Club must include a link to the relevant language section of FIFA.com on every page of its website that features content related to the Competition. This link shall comprise the FIFA.com logo, which may be requested via ma.approvals@fifa.org. Please note that the FIFA.com logo may not be used in any other manner and may not be used by any third parties, including Club Affiliates and/or any third party contracted to the Participating Club. Furthermore, the FIFA.com logo may not appear in close proximity to the branding or names of any Club Affiliate and/or any third party contracted to the Participating Club;
- (ii) Syndication package: Participating Clubs may obtain from the FIFA Digital Media House Subdivision a FIFA.com content syndication package to use with their websites. The package will include latest scores and headlines, amongst other information;
- (iii) Online use of Competition Marks and Composite Logo: The Competition Marks and the Composite Logo may be used on Participating Club websites provided that:

- they are used for editorial purposes only;
- the Participating Club has first obtained FIFA's prior written approval for such use, such request to be submitted to FIFA, in writing, to ma.approvals@fifa.org;
- they are not used in association or connection with, or in proximity to, the name and/or logo of any commercial organisation, including Club Affiliates or any third party contracted to the Participating Club;
- they are not used as a hyperlink to any website or webpage. If a link to another website/webpage is desired, a text link would have to be used;
- they are not used or placed within the title bar, menu bar and/or the footer; and
- the use of the Competition Marks and/or Composite Logo on the Participating Club website always complies with this article 13 of these Media and Marketing Regulations.

- (iv) URLs: The Competition Name may not be placed in the URLs of Participating Club websites.

14. COMPETITION TICKETING MATTERS

- 14.1. Ticketing conditions: Each Participating Club shall fully comply with, and ensure that all of its Club Guests fully comply with, all Competition ticket terms, conditions and regulations imposed and/or promulgated by FIFA and/or any third party authorised by FIFA to distribute any tickets for the Competition.
- 14.2. No use for advertising and/or promotional purposes: Each Participating Club must refrain, and must ensure that its Club Guests refrain, from any advertising or promotional activity which involves, purports to involve or could be understood as involving the use of tickets for the Competition, tickets for official or unofficial training sessions in the Competition Territory during the Competition Period, or tickets to any other event related to the Competition which is organised by, or under the auspices of, FIFA. In particular, each Participating Club must ensure that its Club Guests do not conduct any prize competitions, promotions, sweepstakes, lotteries or any further activities which, in FIFA's reasonable opinion, enable the Club Guests, or any third party, to create an association with FIFA and/or the Competition and/or which enable any third party, as a consequence of its participation in such activities, to receive access or entitlement to a Competition ticket.
- 14.3. Conduct of Club Guests, Club Affiliates and customers: Each Participating Club is required to ensure that its Club Guests and Club Affiliates and/or any third parties contracted to the Participating Club are notified of, and comply with, the terms and conditions which apply to Competition tickets.
- 14.4. Ambush Marketing activities: Each Participating Club is required to ensure that all Club Guests and Club Affiliates and/or any third parties contracted to the Participating Clubs refrain from conducting any advertising and/or promotional activity which could reasonably be regarded as ambushing the exclusive rights of the Commercial Affiliates, the Media Rights Licensees and FIFA, including refraining from any advertising and/or promotional activity which could lead to the reasonable assumption that Competition tickets or other rights of access to the Competition may be acquired by third parties in relation to such activities.

PART D: MISCELLANEOUS

15. MISCELLANEOUS

- 15.1. Principles: Each Participating Club shall be responsible for ensuring that all of its Team Delegation Members have read and understood these Media and Marketing Regulations. Each Participating Club shall immediately notify its Club Affiliates and contracted third parties of the content of these Media and Marketing Regulations and shall require its Club Affiliates to comply with the terms of these Media and Marketing Regulations. Participating Clubs are fully responsible for the full compliance of their Team Delegation Members, their Club Affiliates and/or any contracted third parties with these Media and Marketing Regulations as well as with any further guidelines, directives and decisions issued by FIFA.
- 15.2. FIFA disciplinary matters: Any violations of these Media and Marketing Regulations or any other FIFA regulations, circulars, guidelines, directives and/or decisions that do not come under the jurisdiction of another body shall be dealt with by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code and all relevant circulars and directives.
- 15.3. Prohibited items: Any items used in a Controlled Area by Participating Clubs or their Team Delegation Members which do not comply with these Media and Marketing Regulations will be removed, confiscated, or covered up at the discretion of the appropriate FIFA Officials. The Participating Clubs may also face the sanctions imposed by the FIFA Disciplinary Committee.
- 15.4. No liability: FIFA shall not be liable to a Participating Club for any losses, fees, damages, or any costs whatsoever which may arise as a result of or in connection with the requirements contained in these Media and Marketing Regulations and/or in the Competition Regulations or the Equipment Regulations.
- 15.5. Interpretation: Capitalised terms shall have the meanings set out in the Definitions section of these Media and Marketing Regulations unless the context otherwise specifically indicates otherwise. Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and any phrase introduced by the terms 'including', 'include', 'in particular', 'for example', 'such as' or any similar expression shall not limit the sense of the words preceding or following such terms.
- 15.6. Inconsistency: To the extent that the Competition Regulations and the Equipment Regulations are inconsistent with any aspect of these Media and Marketing Regulations, these Media and Marketing Regulations shall take precedence over the terms of the Competition Regulations and Equipment Regulations. The relevant terms of the Competition Regulations and Equipment Regulations shall be deemed amended accordingly.
- 15.7. Amendments: Upon notification to the Participating Clubs, FIFA may amend these Media and Marketing Regulations at any time and at its sole discretion.

FIFA, at any time prior to the Competition and at its sole discretion, remains entitled to publish guidelines and circulars specifying these Media and Marketing Regulations or parts hereof.

- 15.8. Matters not provided for: Any matters relating to these Media and Marketing Regulations not expressly addressed herein (including cases of force majeure) shall be determined by the FIFA Council, the decision of which shall be binding and final.
- 15.9. Languages: These Media and Marketing Regulations exist in the four official FIFA languages (English, French, German and Spanish). In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the English, French, Spanish or German texts of these Media and Marketing Regulations, the English text is authoritative.
- 15.10. No waiver: Any waiver by FIFA of any breach of these Media and Marketing Regulations (including of any document referred to in these Media and Marketing Regulations) will not operate as, or be construed to be, a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision or a waiver of any right arising out of these Media and Marketing Regulations or any other document. Any such waiver shall only be valid if given in writing. Failure by FIFA to insist upon strict adherence to any provision of these Media and Marketing Regulations, or any document referred to in these Media and Marketing Regulations, on one or more occasions will not be considered to be a waiver of, or deprive FIFA of the right to subsequently insist upon strict adherence to, that provision or any other provision of these Media and Marketing Regulations, or any document referred to in these Media and Marketing Regulations.
- 15.11. Future FIFA Club World Cup editions: These Media and Marketing Regulations apply only to the Competition (and any Competition-related events as described herein) and shall not apply, or be deemed to apply, to future editions of the FIFA Club World Cup. Nothing in these Media and Marketing Regulations may be relied upon, or set any precedent, in relation to any FIFA competition other than the Competition.
