

RULES OF ALLOCATION

The articles below relate to the following award:

FIFA Puskás Award 2014

(the "Award")

- Art. 1. The organisation and presentation of the Award is administered by FIFA.
- Art. 2. The Award rewards the best goal scored between the dates of 3 October 2013 and 26 September 2014 (inclusively), without distinction of championship, gender or nationality.
- Art. 3. FIFA and selected Football Committee members define a shortlist of ten (10) goals, scored between the dates of 3 October 2013 and 26 September 2014 (inclusively), which are shortly thereafter broadcast on FIFA.com and francefootball.fr in order to facilitate a public vote.

The voting mechanism for the Award is conducted as follows:

Early November 2014 – public voting commences on FIFA.com and francefootball.fr (the "First Vote").

Close of First Vote occurs one (1) hour prior to the official announcement of the three (3) goals that have obtained the most public votes from the First Vote (the "First Vote Official Announcement").

Public voting commences on FIFA.com and francefootball.fr on the same date as, and shortly after, the First Vote Official Announcement in order to determine the winner of the Award from the shortlist of three (3) goals derived from the First Vote (the "Second Vote").

Close of Second Vote occurs during the award ceremony organised by FIFA and the Amaury Group on 12 January 2015.

Each individual member of the public is entitled to make a maximum of one (1) vote in the First Vote and a maximum of one (1) vote in the Second Vote. The public votes collated in the First Vote count towards the outcome of the Second Vote.

- Art. 4. The Award is bestowed upon the player whose goal has received the highest number of public votes collectively during the First Vote and Second Vote processes.
- Art.5. The winner of the Award receives the relevant trophy in person during the ceremony organised by FIFA and the Amaury Group.
- Art. 6. Any dispute arising from the voting shall be reviewed and resolved by FIFA at its sole discretion.
- Art. 7. Notwithstanding the foregoing articles, FIFA is entitled at any point to disregard any vote by any member of the public in the event that such member of the public is deemed by FIFA, at its sole discretion, to have been associated with or involved at any time with any unethical and/or disreputable act(s) or undertaking(s). For the avoidance of doubt, FIFA is not obliged to publish such nominations nor communicate any such decision to the relevant member of the public or any other persons.
