The Youth Olympic Football Tournaments take place every four years in conjunction with the Youth Olympic Games.

3.

As a general rule, only associations affiliated to FIFA may participate in the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments provided there is a National Olympic Committee (hereinafter: NOC) in their respective country that is already recognised or about to be recognised by the International Olympic Committee (hereinafter: IOC). Participating teams are either nominated by the confederations and confirmed by FIFA in cooperation with the IOC, or qualify through a preliminary competition (cf. art. 5).

The Youth Olympic Football Tournaments Nanjing 2014 shall feature a boys' and a girls' football tournament scheduled to be played between 14 and 27 August 2014. Participation in the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments is free of charge.

6.

The Regulations for the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments Nanjing 2014 (hereinafter: the Regulations) regulate the rights, duties and responsibilities of all associations taking part in the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments Nanjing 2014. 8.

The FIFA Statutes and all FIFA regulations in force shall apply. Any reference in these Regulations to the FIFA Statutes and regulations refers to the Statutes and regulations valid at the time of application.

Further to the above provision, in the case of a match being abandoned as a result of force majeure after it has already kicked off, the following principles will apply:

Natural or artificial turf

5.

Matches may be played on natural or artificial surfaces, subject to the approval of the FIFA Organising Committee. Where artificial surfaces are used, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Programme for Football Turf or the International Artificial Turf Standard.

Floodlights

All matches shall be played under floodlights. Matches played at night may be played only at venues with floodlighting installations that ensure that the whole pitch is evenly lit according to FIFA specifications. An emergency independent power generator shall also be available in each stadium which, in the event of a power failure, guarantees at least two-thirds of the FIFA-specified intensity of light for the whole pitch and ensures emergency lighting in the whole stadium. The FIFA Organising Committee is entitled to grant exceptions, which are final.

Retractable roof

7.

If a stadium has a retractable roof, the FIFA Match Commissioner and the FIFA General Coordinator, in consultation with the referee and the two teams' officials, shall decide before the match whether the roof shall be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the match coordination meeting on the day before the match, although it may subsequently be modified prior to kick-off in the event of sudden and significant weather condition changes.

8.

If the match starts with the roof closed, it shall remain closed for the entire match. If the match starts with the roof open and there is a serious deterioration in the weather conditions, only the referee has the authority to order its closure during the match. In such an event, the roof is to remain closed until the end of the match.

Stadium clocks and giant screens

Clocks in the stadium showing the length of time played may run during the match, provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e. after 40 and 80 minutes respectively. The half-time interval shall be 15 minutes.

10.

At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (40 and 80 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, either orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. Each allowance for time lost shall be shown on the panels or electronic display boards of the fourth official.

11.

Panels or electronic display boards, numbered on both sides for clarity, shall be used to indicate the substitution of players and the number of minutes to be allowed for time lost.

12.

The use of giant screens must be in compliance with the Guidelines for the Use of Giant Screens at FIFA Matches.

20 Training sites

NYOGOC shall provide training sites for the teams. These training sites shall be in good condition and approved by FIFA. They shall be situated near the Youth Olympic Village and made available at least five days before the opening match until one day after the team's last match in the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments.

2.

As from five (5) days prior to the first match of the final competitions and up to their elimination, the Participating Member Associations shall use only those training sites which have been officially designated for training by FIFA and NYOGOC.

3.

In principle, the teams shall use the training sites on a rotation basis in order to ensure that each team has the same conditions. Full details about the allocation of training sites shall be communicated at the Team Workshop.

4.

The training sites shall have the same surface as the match pitches, in perfect condition, freshly mowed and fully marked in accordance with the Laws of the Game.

5.

NYOGOC shall provide support personnel and suitable training site equipment at all official training sites, including but not limited to cones and movable goals. Each training site shall be equipped with at least one dressing room with lockers, showers and toilets.

21 Player lists and official delegation lists

Provisional list of players

1.

Each Participating Member Association shall submit a provisional list of not more than 30 players (a minimum of three of whom shall be goalkeepers) to the FIFA general secretariat, accompanied by a copy of the birth certificate and passport of each player appearing on the list. Further specifics of the provisional list, including the number of players allowed on the list and the deadline by which the list shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat, will be stipulated in the relevant circular.

Final list of players

The final list of the 18 players (two of whom shall be goalkeepers) selected to participate in the final competition, as well as the list of the seven officials, shall be submitted to NYOGOC and the FIFA general secretariat, using the official IOC and FIFA forms, by midnight of 15 July 2014 (Nanjing time) at the latest. The players on the final list of players must be chosen from the players on the provisional list. The final list of players shall include, at a minimum, the following information:

- Full last name
- All first names
- Popular name
- Name to be placed on shirt
- Number to be placed on shirt
- Number of caps and number of goals
- Position
- Date of birth
- Passport number and expiry date
- Club and country of the club
- Height and weight

3.

Only the 18 players on the final list will be permitted to take part in the final competition. Only the numbers 1 to 18 may be allocated to these players, with number 1 being reserved exclusively for one of the goalkeepers. The numbers on the back of the shirts shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the final list of players. In the event of a goalkeeper needing to be replaced by an outfield player (due to injuries or red cards), each team shall provide a goalkeeper shirt without a number displayed on the back of the shirt in order to distinguish this replacement goalkeeper from the other players.

Replacement of injured players

To replace a player who already features on the final list of 18 players and sustains a serious injury or is so ill that the player can no longer be expected to play (according to the IOC Late Athlete Replacement Policy), the proposed replacement player must feature on the long list of applications for accreditation sent to NYOGOC by the NOC. Provided that the FIFA Medical Committee has verified the injury or illness on the basis of a medical certificate issued by the team doctor and the player's incapacity has been confirmed by the FIFA Organising Committee, such a replacement can be made between the submission of the final list (15 July 2014) until up to 48 hours prior to the team's arrival in Nanjing. The exact procedure to be followed for such a replacement will be described in detail in the relevant FIFA circular and the Late Athlete Replacement Policy of the IOC. During this period, any replacement player will take over the shirt number of the injured or ill player being replaced.

Any request to change a player's status must be made by completing the NYOGOC Official Late Athlete Replacement Form. The form must be completed by the team and approved by FIFA in order to be valid. The National Olympic Committee "Chef de Mission" or the football association's head of delegation must submit this form to NYOGOC.

Participating Member Associations shall have their officials accredited by their respective NOC with an indication of the name and function of each person, as per the information contained in the final list of players and officials in compliance with IOC/NYOGOC regulations.

6.

The maximum number of officials in each delegation shall be seven, including the head of delegation.

7.

The final list of 18 players will be published by the FIFA general secretariat. This final list of 18 players plus seven officials will constitute the official delegation list.

8.

Before the start of the final competition, every player on the final list must prove his/her identity, nationality and age by producing his/her legally valid individual passport with photograph (stating day, month and year of birth) and a copy of his/her birth certificate.

Accreditation9.

NYOGOC shall issue each player and official with an official accreditation bearing a photograph.

10.

Only players in possession of valid accreditation may play in a final competition. The accreditation shall always be available for inspection by FIFA officials (e.g. referees, General Coordinators).

11.

Each Participating Member Association shall receive a maximum of 25 accreditations per team (18 for the listed players and seven for officials).

12.

The Participating Member Associations shall ensure that all accreditation data required by FIFA is submitted by the deadline stipulated by FIFA. Further details will be outlined in a FIFA circular letter.

22 Start lists and substitutes' benches

Start lists

1.

All 18 players shall be named on the start list for each match (11 selected players and seven substitutes). Up to a maximum of three of the substitutes may take the place of the selected players at any time during the match.

2.

The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond to the numbers indicated on the start list. The start list shall be signed by the head coach.

3.

Each team is responsible for arriving at the stadium at the latest 90 minutes before the kick-off of the respective match and for providing the completed start list to the FIFA General Coordinator upon such arrival.

4.

Each team is responsible for ensuring that the start list is completed properly and submitted on time, and that only the selected players start the match. In the case of any discrepancies, the matter will be submitted to the FIFA Disciplinary Committee.

5.

If any of the 11 players submitted on the start list are not able to begin the match due to injury or illness, they may be replaced by any of the eligible substitutes as long as the FIFA General Coordinator is officially informed prior to kick-off. Within 24 hours, the team concerned must also provide FIFA with a medical report issued by the team doctor responsible (in one of the four official languages of FIFA).

6.

Further to the above, any injured or ill player who is removed from the start list will no longer be eligible to take part in the match, and thus cannot be selected as a substitute player at any time during the game. Such a change to the start list will not reduce the number of official substitutions that may be made by a team during the match. In accordance with Law 3 of the Laws of the Game, up to a maximum of three substitutions may still be made.

7.

Although no longer eligible to play as a substitute, the injured or ill player who was removed from the start list may be seated on the substitutes' bench, and if so, would then also be eligible for doping control selection.

8.

Only the players who were identified on the official start list submitted to the FIFA General Coordinator, or were confirmed as a warm-up injury/illness replacement player, may start the match. In the case of any discrepancies of players on the pitch at the beginning of a match, the matter will be submitted to the FIFA Disciplinary Committee for a decision.

Substitutes' bench9.

No more than 14 people (seven officials and seven substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. The names of these officials must be indicated on the "Officials on the Substitutes' Bench" form and provided to the FIFA General Coordinator. A suspended player or official will not be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench.

10.

The use of electronic communication systems between players and/or technical staff is not permitted. FIFA will provide more information by means of circular letter.

23 Team equipment and team colours

Team equipment guidelines1.

The Participating Member Associations shall undertake to comply with the FIFA Equipment Regulations with regard to all issues concerning colours, numbering and the printing of names on the players' equipment, for the competitions.

2.

During the final competitions, unlike at other FIFA competitions, the IOC Olympic Charter shall form the basis for the acceptance of the equipment of the Participating Member Associations. The latter will be representing their NOCs during the Nanjing 2014 Youth Olympic Games and shall therefore comply fully with IOC guidelines. NOCs are formally responsible for ensuring that the equipment of all of their representative teams is in compliance with IOC and FIFA regulations. As members of FIFA, the associations are responsible for sharing the relevant FIFA equipment requirements with their NOC so that all equipment brought to the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments is in compliance with both FIFA and IOC regulations.

Rule 50 and the Bye-law to Rule 50 of the Olympic Charter (cf. Appendix B) describe the specifications of manufacturer identification allowed on the players' kits and on other clothing worn by substitutes and officials in the stadium and training sites. This ruling shall take precedence over the FIFA Equipment Regulations in force in terms of advertising on sports equipment and manufacturers' identification for the duration of the final competitions.

4.

Delegation Members and any other persons carrying out duties on the Participating Member Associations' behalf are not allowed to display political, religious, commercial or personal messages in any language or form on their playing or team kits, equipment (including kit bags, beverage containers, medical bags, etc.) or body for the duration of their time in the stadiums, training sites or any other areas where accreditation is required to gain access. Any violations shall be reported to the FIFA Disciplinary Committee for the necessary sanctions to be imposed in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.

Team colours

5.

Each team shall inform FIFA of two different and contrasting colours (one predominantly dark and one predominantly light) for its official and reserve team kits (shirt, shorts and socks). In addition, each team shall select three contrasting colours for its goalkeeper kits. These three goalkeeper kits must be distinctly different from each other as well as different from the official and reserve team kits. This information shall be sent to FIFA on the team colour form. Only these colours may be worn during matches.

6.

FIFA will inform the teams of the colours that they shall wear for each match by means of circular letter and/or at the match coordination meetings.

Team kit approvals

7.

During the final competitions, all equipment (kits, gloves, bags, medical equipment, etc.) that could be on display within the stadiums, training sites, hotels or during transfers to, from or within Nanjing must be approved by FIFA. The approval procedure and the applicable deadlines will be communicated by circular letter. All equipment submitted to FIFA must already have been approved by the team's respective NOC.

Players' names and numbers

Throughout the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments, each player shall wear the number assigned to him/her on the official players' list in accordance with the Equipment Regulations.

9.

The player's last name or popular name (or abbreviation) shall be affixed above the number on the back of the shirt and shall be clearly legible in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations.

Team kit on matchdays

10.

The official and reserve team kits and all goalkeeper kits (including the goalkeeper shirts without names and numbers) shall be taken to every match.

Footballs

11.

The footballs used in the final competitions shall be selected and exclusively supplied by FIFA and/or the IOC. The footballs shall conform with the provisions of the Laws of the Game and the FIFA Equipment Regulations. They shall bear one of the following three designations: the official "FIFA APPROVED" logo, the official "FIFA INSPECTED" logo or the "INTERNATIONAL MATCHBALL STANDARD" reference.

12.

Each team will receive 20 training balls from FIFA and/or the IOC upon conclusion of the official draw as well as an additional 20 training balls upon arrival in Nanjing. Only these balls delivered by FIFA and/or the IOC may be used for training and warm-up sessions in the official stadiums and at the official training sites.

24 Refereeing

The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials (hereinafter referred to collectively as match officials) for the final competitions shall be appointed for each match by the FIFA Referees Committee. They shall be selected from the FIFA International Refereeing List in force and come from a member association whose team is not playing in the group or match in question. A reserve assistant referee may also be appointed for certain matches. The decisions of the FIFA Referees Committee are final and not subject to appeal.

2.

The match officials shall receive their official refereeing kit and equipment from FIFA. They shall wear and use only this kit and equipment on matchdays.

3.

The match officials shall be provided with training facilities. These training facilities must be in good condition and must be approved by FIFA and shall not be used for any other matches or events from at least ten (10) days prior to the start of the competitions, until the competitions are completed.

4.

If the referee or one of the assistant referees is prevented from carrying out his duties, such referee or assistant referee shall be replaced by the fourth official. The FIFA Referees Committee shall be informed immediately.

5.

After each match, the referee shall complete and sign the official FIFA report form. The referee shall hand it over to the FIFA General Coordinator at the stadium immediately after the match. On the report form, the referee shall note all occurrences of significance, such as misconduct of players leading to caution or expulsion, unsporting behaviour by supporters and/or by officials or any other person acting on behalf of an association at the match and any other incident happening before, during and after the match in as much detail as possible.

25 Laws of the Game

All matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game in force at the time of the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments and as laid down by the International Football Association Board. In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the translation of the Laws of the Game, the English version shall be authoritative.

2.

Concerning the “Notes on the Laws of the Game” section, particularly with respect to the allowance of modifications of the duration of the periods of play for matches for players under the age of 16, the following shall apply for the final competitions of the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments:

- Each match shall last 80 minutes, consisting of two periods of 40 minutes, with an interval of 15 minutes.

3.

If a match is level at the end of normal playing time and requires a winning team based on the stage of the competition, kicks from the penalty mark shall be taken to determine the winner in accordance with the procedure specified in the Laws of the Game.

26 Olympic medals and diplomas

Each player of the three top-ranked teams who features on the official list of players shall receive a medal:

Youth Olympic champion:	a Youth Olympic gold medal and a diploma
Runner-up:	a Youth Olympic silver medal and a diploma
Third place:	a Youth Olympic bronze medal and a diploma

These medals and diplomas shall be provided by NYOGOC for distribution by the IOC.

Each player of the teams ranked fourth, fifth and sixth shall receive a diploma. These diplomas shall be provided by NYOGOC for distribution by the IOC.

FIFA awards

3.

The FIFA Fair Play Trophy, a fair play medal and a diploma for each player and official as well as a voucher for football equipment (to be used for youth development, the exact amount of which shall be fixed by the relevant FIFA committee) shall be presented to the team finishing first in the fair play contest of the boys' and girls' final competitions. The applicable rules are in the Fair Play Contest Regulations. Since presenting the fair play awards in the stadium at the end of the boys' and girls' finals would contravene Olympic protocol, FIFA shall find another non-Olympic occasion to make these presentations.

4.

There are no official awards other than those listed above, unless otherwise decided by the FIFA Organising Committee.

27 Seating arrangements, tickets

During football matches, the members of the FIFA delegation (including match officials) shall be seated in the Federation Stand.

2.

Members of the FIFA delegation shall only gain access to the Federation Stand with valid accreditation.

3.

Participating Member Associations shall be accommodated in reserved areas in the Athletes' Stand.

4.

Players and officials from the Participating Member Associations shall only gain access to the Athletes' Stand with a valid accreditation.

5.

In the event of multiple matches being played in the same venue on the same day, a specific area shall be reserved in the Athletes' Stand for the teams playing in the matches.

6.

As with all other events in the Youth Olympic Games, football falls under the auspices of the IOC. The customary FIFA policy of allocating complimentary tickets to the teams for their matches in the group or knockout stages does not apply. Should an association wish to purchase additional tickets for its own or other matches, requests should be addressed to its NOC, the latter being solely responsible for coordinating any additional ticket requests for all sports disciplines.

28 Financial provisions

FIFA shall be responsible for the costs of insurance taken out to cover its own risks as follows:

- a) legal liability insurance;
- b) financial and consequential losses liability insurance;
- c) accident insurance for members of the official FIFA delegation (including match officials);
- d) legal protection insurance;
- e) luggage insurance for members of the official FIFA delegation (including match officials).

The following financial terms and conditions are regulated jointly by the Olympic Charter of the IOC, the Host City Contract and the Contact Report Summaries signed by FIFA and NYOGOC, and are borne jointly by the IOC, NYOGOC and the respective NOCs:

- a) board and lodging of the participating teams and match officials;
- b) international air travel expenses for the participating teams and match officials;

- c) domestic travel expenses (by air or road) during the final competitions for the participating teams and match officials;
- d) laundry service for the match and training kits of the participating teams and match officials.

3.

Each Participating Member Association shall be responsible for and bear the costs of the following:

- a) adequate insurance cover for its whole delegation (players and officials);
- b) board and lodging during the final competitions (in excess of the amounts paid by the IOC or NYOGOC);
- c) any costs associated with additional members of the association's delegation (in excess of the official delegation as defined in these Regulations).

Any expenses other than those stipulated in these Regulations and not explicitly outlined to be borne by FIFA or NYOGOC shall be borne by the relevant Participating Member Association.

29 Commercial rights

Rights of the Participating Member Associations

1.

In the absence of any written agreement with FIFA to the contrary, or as set out herein, no Participating Member Association shall have any promotional, advertising, marketing, broadcasting or other commercial exploitation rights in relation to:

- a) the final competitions of the Youth Olympic Football Tournaments;
- b) any event held under the auspices of FIFA;
- c) FIFA or the IOC.

FIFA marks

2.

FIFA is the sole owner of its name, marks, logos, emblems, cup design and other such marks relating to the tournaments on a worldwide basis, including but not limited to:

- a) the name "FIFA";
- b) the FIFA design emblem.

3.

The use of these marks is subject to FIFA's prior written approval and further regulations issued by FIFA. The Participating Member Associations shall not use FIFA's marks without obtaining such written approval.

Rights of the IOC

All commercial rights in relation to the final competitions (marketing and TV rights) are regulated by the IOC.

30 Special circumstances

1.

The FIFA Organising Committee shall, in conjunction with the IOC and NYOGOC, issue any instructions necessitated by special circumstances that may arise in Nanjing. These instructions shall form an integral part of these Regulations.

2.

Any communications to FIFA, the confederations, the NOCs, the IOC or NYOGOC shall be sent by telefax and confirmed on the same day by registered post.

31 Matters not provided for

Any matters not provided for in these Regulations and any cases of force majeure shall be decided by the FIFA Organising Committee in cooperation with the IOC and NYOGOC. All decisions shall be final and binding and not subject to appeal.

32 Languages

In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the English, French, German or Spanish texts of these Regulations, the English text shall be authoritative.

33 Copyright

The copyright of the match schedules drawn up in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations is the property of FIFA.

34 No waiver

Any waiver by FIFA of any breach of these Regulations (including of any document referred to in these Regulations) will not operate as, or be construed to be, a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision or a waiver of any right arising out of these Regulations or any other document. Any such waiver shall only be valid if given in writing. Failure by FIFA to insist upon strict adherence to any provision of these Regulations, or any document referred to in these Regulations, on one or more occasions will not be considered to be a waiver of, or deprive FIFA of the right to subsequently insist upon strict adherence to that provision or any other provision of these Regulations, or any document referred to in these Regulations.

35 Enforcement

These Regulations were approved by the FIFA Executive Committee on 4 December 2013 and came into force immediately thereafter.

Fair Play Contest Regulations

I. General provisions

1.

As part of its campaign to promote fair play, FIFA regularly holds a fair play contest during its championships, based on an appraisal of the teams' conduct by a FIFA delegate such as the Match Commissioner, a member of the Technical Study Group or a member of a standing committee.

2.

The objective of fair play activities is to foster a sporting spirit among players, team officials and spectators, thereby heightening the fans' enjoyment of the game.

3.

At the final whistle of each game, the delegate shall complete the appropriate fair play form after consulting the referee and the referee assessor.

4.

Every match in the final competition shall be taken into account.

5.

The FIFA Organising Committee shall compile and publish the classification at the end of the final competition. Its decision is final.

6.

FIFA will award the team that wins the fair play contest a trophy, a medal for each player and official, and a diploma, all of which the team can keep permanently. The team shall also receive a voucher valued at USD 10,000, which shall be exchanged for a supply of football equipment to be used exclusively for youth development.

II. Assessment criteria

The assessment form contains six criteria by which the teams' fair play performance shall be judged, stressing the positive aspects rather than negative. As a general rule, maximum points shall only be awarded if the team concerned displays a positive attitude.

2.

Red and yellow cards shall be deducted from a maximum of 10 points:

- first yellow card: minus 1 point
- second yellow/indirect red card: minus 3 points
- direct red card: minus 3 points
- yellow card & direct red card: minus 4 points

Red and yellow cards are the only criteria entailing minus points.

3.

Positive play

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 10 points

The aim of this criterion is to reward attacking and attractive play, and shall take into account such aspects as:

- a) Positive aspects
 - attacking rather than defensive tactics;
 - speeding up the game;
 - constantly attempting to score even if the desired result (e.g. qualification) has already been achieved.
- b) Negative aspects
 - tactics that rely on rough play;
 - play-acting;
 - time-wasting etc.
- c) As a general rule, positive play is correlated with the number of scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

4.Respect towards the opponent

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations and opponents etc.

When assessing the players' behaviour towards the opponents, duplication of the judgment for red and yellow cards should be avoided. However, the delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards as well as those overlooked by the referee.

Assessment shall be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than on infringements. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards opponents shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

5.Respect towards the referee/match officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the match officials and the decisions they take.

A positive attitude towards the referee, including acceptance of decisions without protest, shall be rewarded. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards the match officials shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

6.Behaviour of the team officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Coaches and other team officials are expected to encourage the sporting, technical, tactical and ethical standards of their team and to direct the players to behave in accordance with the principles of fair play.

Both positive and negative factors in the behaviour of the team officials shall be included in the assessment, such as for instance whether they calm down angry players or how they accept the referee's decisions. Inciting or provoking players shall be rated negatively.

Cooperation with the media shall also be a factor in the assessment. Behaviour that is faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

Behaviour of the crowd

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

The crowd is considered to be an integral part of a football match. Fans can contribute to the positive atmosphere of a match by encouraging their team by cheering and singing etc. in the spirit of fair play.

Spectators are, however, expected to respect the opponents and the referee. They should appreciate the opponents' performance regardless of the result and in no way intimidate or frighten opponents, the referee or the opponents' supporters.

The maximum number of points (5) may only be awarded if all these requirements have been satisfied, especially as regards creating a positive atmosphere.

This criterion is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible, "n.a." (not applicable) shall be entered under this item.

III. Final assessment

The final assessment of a team is obtained as follows:

- a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team A:
 $8 + 7 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 4 = 31$
- b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (40):
 $31 \div 40 = 0.775$
- c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000:
 $0.775 \times 1,000 = 775$

If, however, the number of fans supporting a certain team is negligible and the “behaviour of the crowd” criterion consequently disregarded (“n.a.” – cf. art. II par. 7 of the Fair Play Contest Regulations), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Thus the final assessment would be attained as follows:

- a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team B:
 $7 + 8 + 2 + 5 + 2 = 24$
- b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (35):
 $24 \div 35 = 0.686$
- c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000:
 $0.686 \times 1000 = 686$

The overall assessment of a team during the final competition shall be calculated by adding the points attained at each match and dividing this figure by the number of matches played.

Teams that are eliminated after the group stage of the final competition shall be excluded from the fair play contest.

In addition to making the assessment, members of FIFA may give a short oral account of the teams’ fair play performance to explain the positive and negative factors, which form the basis of their assessment. The account may also point out any outstanding gestures of fair play from a player, official, referee or any other person. However, no additional points shall be awarded for this reason.

These regulations have been approved by the FIFA Organising Committee.

These regulations have been ratified by the FIFA Executive Committee and come into force immediately.

To be valid, all contracts of the OCOG containing any element whatsoever of advertising, including the right or licence to use the emblem or the mascot of the Olympic Games, must be in conformity with the Olympic Charter and must comply with the instructions given by the IOC Executive Board. The same shall apply to contracts relating to the timing equipment, the scoreboards, and to the injection of any identification signal in television programmes. Breaches of these regulations come under the authority of the IOC Executive Board.

Any mascot created for the Olympic Games shall be considered to be an Olympic emblem, the design of which must be submitted by the OCOG to the IOC Executive Board for its approval. Such mascot may not be used for commercial purposes in the country of an NOC without the latter's prior written approval.

4.

The OCOG shall ensure the protection of the property of the emblem and the mascot of the Olympic Games for the benefit of the IOC, both nationally and internationally. However, the OCOG alone and, after the OCOG has been wound up, the NOC of the host country, may exploit such emblem and mascot, as well as other marks, designs, badges, posters, objects and documents connected with the Olympic Games during their preparation, during their holding and during a period terminating not later than the end of the calendar year during which such Olympic Games are held. Upon the expiry of this period, all rights in or relating to such emblem, mascot and other marks, designs, badges, posters, objects and documents shall thereafter belong entirely to the IOC. The OCOG and/or the NOC, as the case may be and to the extent necessary, shall act as trustees (in a fiduciary capacity) for the sole benefit of the IOC in this respect.

The provisions of this Bye-law also apply, mutatis mutandis, to all contracts signed by the organising committee of a Session or an Olympic Congress.

6.

The uniforms of the competitors and of all persons holding an official position may include the flag or Olympic emblem of their NOC or, with the consent of the OCOG, the OCOG Olympic emblem. The IF officials may wear the uniform and the emblem of their federations.

7.

The identification on all technical gear, installations and other apparatus, which are neither worn nor used by athletes or other participants at the Olympic Games, including timing equipment and scoreboards, may on no account be larger than 1/10th of the height of the equipment, installation or apparatus in question, and shall not be greater than 10cm high.

8.

The word "identification" means the normal display of the name, designation, trademark, logo or any other distinctive sign of the manufacturer of the item, appearing not more than once per item.

9.

The OCOG, all participants and all other persons accredited at the Olympic Games and all other persons or parties concerned shall comply with the manuals, guides, or guidelines, and all other instructions of the IOC Executive Board, in respect of all matters subject to Rule 50 and this Bye-law.

51 Protocol

Throughout the period of the Olympic Games, the IOC Executive Board alone has the authority to determine the protocol applicable at all sites and venues placed under the responsibility of the OCOG.
