

Stadium Code of Conduct for the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 and the 2018 FIFA World Cup Russia™

Moscow, 2016

1. INTRODUCTION AND DOCUMENT PURPOSE

1.1. This Stadium Code of Conduct has been developed by the Fédération Internationale de Football Association (“FIFA”) for the matches (“Matches”) of the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017 and the 2018 FIFA World Cup Russia™ (“Events”). This Code of Conduct describes how Spectators shall conduct themselves in a stadium as well as their rights and obligations during the Events.

1.2. FIFA, the FIFA World Cup Ticketing Centre (“FWCTC”), the FIFA Ticketing Office (“FTO”), the Russia 2018 Local Organising Committee, the stadium owners, as well as their employees, volunteers, representatives, officials and administrators (collectively referred to as “Event Organizers”) and/or the public authorities in charge of safety, security and public order are responsible for safety, security and public order in stadiums during Matches.

1.3. The following principal terms are used for the purposes of this Code of Conduct:

- 1.3.1. “Ticket” means a document issued by FIFA for a Match;
- 1.3.2. “Volunteers” mean citizens of the Russian Federation or foreign nationals who take part in organising the Events based on a civil contract without financial compensation;
- 1.3.3. “Individual” means a citizen of the Russian Federation, a foreign national or a stateless person;
- 1.3.4. “Prohibited Items” means items prohibited by the public authorities and Event Organizers from being brought into a stadium so as to ensure the security of Matches taking place in the stadium, to maintain public order, to ensure a comfortable environment for visitors, and to perform the obligations of the Event Organizers;
- 1.3.5. “Spectator” means an Individual using a Ticket to attend an Event Match;
- 1.3.6. “Storage Lockers” means appropriately equipped locations for storing items that do not pose a threat to human lives or health, and are not banned from circulation by laws of the Russian Federation. The expected duration of storage of personal belongings does not exceed 24 hours from the end of a Match at a stadium. Unclaimed personal belongings will be turned over to the municipal lost-and-found office after the storage period expires;
- 1.3.7. “Russia 2018 Local Organising Committee” (LOC) means the autonomous non-profit organisation established pursuant to Federal Law No.108-FZ of 7 June 2013 for the purposes of conducting activities to support the preparation and staging of competitions in the Russian Federation – namely the 2018 FIFA World Cup Russia™ and the FIFA Confederations Cup Russia 2017;

- 1.3.8. “Screening” means a check performed on Individuals, vehicles, items and objects with the aid of equipment upon their entry into the stadium security perimeter with a view to providing security for Event participants and Spectators in accordance with the established stadium access procedures;
- 1.3.9. “Steward” means a person who has completed special training in accordance with the procedure established by the federal executive agency pertaining to physical education and sports, has a steward certification issued in accordance with the procedure established by a federal executive agency pertaining to physical education and sports, and is engaged by the Event Organizers and/or by the owner or user of the stadium on a contractual basis to ensure public order and public safety during the Events.

2. NOTICE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE STADIUM CODE OF CONDUCT

2.1. Every Spectator agrees and acknowledges that he or she has read, understood and accepted and agrees to be bound by, and comply with this Code of Conduct as well as any other special instructions from the Event Organizers. If considered necessary, the Event Organizers may supplement this Code of Conduct by issuing additional instructions aimed at providing security and maintaining public order at the stadium, preventing or eliminating threats to human lives or health, and ensuring the safety of their personal belongings.

2.2. The Event Organizers reserve the right to modify this document, which will be in compliance with Russian Federation legislation. Spectators can view the latest version of this Code of Conduct at www.FIFA.com/tickets.

2.3. The Event Organizers will put this Code of Conduct up on notice boards next to ticket offices and entrances to stadiums. Graphical images depicting some of the items in the list of Prohibited Items in Section 5 hereof are printed on the reverse side of the Ticket.

3. ACCESS TO THE STADIUM

3.1. A Spectator may be granted access to a stadium if he or she presents a Ticket and has successfully passed the search and screening procedures, including an inspection of the Spectator’s personal belongings.

3.2. Pursuant to Federal Law No. 108-FZ of 7 June 2013, Spectators are required by the Russian authorities to present and carry a personalised identification document (Fan-ID) for the purpose of accessing a Stadium on a Matchday.

FIFA does not assume any liability, obligation or responsibility in respect of the application, issuance, use and any other operations related to a Fan-ID.

3.3. Pursuant to Section 3.2 above, further information regarding the procedure for obtaining and using a Fan-ID is made available by the Russian authorities at www.fan-id.ru.

3.4. Appropriate stadium access authorisation operated by FIFA means possession by the Spectator of the following access document:

- A Ticket for the relevant Match.

3.5. Spectators are allowed to enter the stadium on the Matchday three hours before the start of the Match or at such time as determined by the Event Organizers. Access to parking areas is granted four hours before the start of the Match. Access to the opening Match and final is granted four hours before the start of the Match.

3.6. There will be a verification of the validity of the Ticket using an electronic access system while the Spectator is entering the security perimeter.

3.7. Spectators agree and acknowledge that they have the right to access only those stadium zones which are specified on their Tickets or by the Event Organizers.

3.8. Disabled people and people with limited mobility will be permitted to enter the stadium with a manual or electric wheelchair or mobility scooters. Wheelchairs and mobility scooters designed for transportation of people with limited mobility shall be equipped with three or four wheels. They shall be no more than 700mm wide and 1,300mm long with a turning radius not exceeding 900mm and a turning width not exceeding 1,500mm. Electric wheelchairs and scooters shall not be able to go above a speed limit of 6km/h. Wheelchairs and mobility scooters whose parameters do not meet these requirements will be denied entry to the stadium.

4. CONDUCT BY THE SPECTATORS

4.1. During the Events, Spectators are obliged to:

4.1.1. at all times during their stay in the stadium, conduct themselves in a manner that does not offend, endanger the safety, or unnecessarily hinder or harass other Spectators and/or accredited persons;

4.1.2. occupy only the stadium seat specified on their Ticket and proceed to that seat only through the designated entrance, unless otherwise specified by the Event Organizers. For security considerations and to prevent risks, Spectators at the stadium may be re-seated (including to a different stadium sector) upon instructions from the Event Organizers;

- 4.1.3. pass through search and screening procedures, including an inspection of personal belongings, when entering by foot or arriving at the stadium and/or an adjacent territory in a motor vehicle;
- 4.1.4. present access documents to authorised personnel in accordance with this Code of Conduct when entering by foot or arriving at the stadium and/or an adjacent territory in a motor vehicle;
- 4.1.5. when arriving at the stadium and/or an adjacent territory in a motor vehicle, show the control and regulatory authorities the passes for motor vehicles issued by the Event Organizers, and also present the motor vehicle for search and screening procedures;
- 4.1.6. use stairways and emergency exits solely for the intended purpose. Spectators shall leave stairways and emergency exits unobstructed at all times. While passing, they shall not stop in order to avoid creating a situation that will prevent other people passing;
- 4.1.7. deposit in Storage Lockers any large items or other objects prohibited from being brought into the stadium hereunder (excluding items that pose a threat to human lives or health or are banned from circulation by laws of the Russian Federation);
- 4.1.8. not disturb public order, and follow recognised rules thereof while at the stadium;
- 4.1.9. treat the property of other Spectators and official Event participants, as well the property of the owners (leaseholders) of the stadium and persons in charge of law and order during the Events with respect. Spectators shall also treat the sports venue property with care, and not litter;
- 4.1.10. treat other Spectators, the Event Organizers, participants of the Events, owners (leaseholders) and persons in charge of law and order with respect;
- 4.1.11. immediately inform Stewards, representatives of the control and regulatory authorities, and other persons responsible for law and order at the stadium about suspicious items, disorderly conduct, smoke or fire, or the necessity to render medical aid to persons present during the Events;
- 4.1.12. comply with lawful requests from the representatives of the Event Organizers, the owners (leaseholders) of the stadium, Stewards or other persons in charge of law and order during the Events;
- 4.1.13. upon orders to evacuate the stadium, act according to the instructions of the Event Organizers, authorised officials, fire safety regulations and approved evacuation plans, while keeping calm and not causing panic.
